

CODE OF ETHICS FOR CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER,
CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER
AND OTHER
EXECUTIVES INVOLVED IN FINANCIAL REPORTING

The Company expects the highest possible honest and ethical conduct from its Chief Executive Officer and from its Chief Financial Officer, Controller, Treasurer, Division Presidents, Chief Legal Officer, Chief Compliance Officer, General Managers and Finance Managers (“Covered Executives”). They serve as models for other employees, strive to deter wrongdoing, and foster a culture in which high performance with ethical behavior and integrity are the norm. In accordance with these principles, the Company’s Chief Executive Officer and Covered Executives adhere to this Financial Code of Ethics, in addition to and wholly consistent with the Ingredion Incorporated Code of Conduct, entitled “Living Our Values”.

The Company’s Chief Executive Officer and Covered Executives will:

1. Engage in and proactively promote honest and ethical conduct throughout the work environment.
2. Avoid actual or apparent conflicts of interest in personal and professional relationships. This encompasses any investment, interest or association that could interfere with independent exercise of judgment in the Company’s best interests, or that could appear to interfere with that judgment.
3. Comply with both the letter and the spirit of all applicable laws, rules and regulations of federal, state, provincial and local governments in the United States and abroad, as well as with those of other appropriate private and public regulatory agencies.
4. Maintain the adequacy of books, records and internal controls and ensure full, fair, accurate, timely and understandable disclosure in reports and documents that the Company files with or submits to the Securities and Exchange Commission and other regulators, as well as in other public communications.
5. Act in good faith, responsibly, with due care, competence and diligence, without misrepresenting or withholding material facts or allowing independent judgment to be subordinated, in alignment with our Ingredion Code of Conduct and Living Our Values of Care First: We actively work to safeguard and enable the wellbeing of our people, the quality of our products, and our reputation for trust and integrity. Be Preferred: We earn the right to be customer-preferred by delivering mutual enduring value at every touchpoint of the customer experience. Everyone Belongs: We embrace diversity and proactively foster an inclusive work environment where each person is valued and feels inspired to contribute their best. Innovate Boldly: We courageously strive for breakthrough innovations driven by our relentless curiosity, bold thinking, speed of decision-making, and agile execution. Owner’s Mindset: We think and act like owners—where everyone takes personal responsibility to anticipate challenges, proactively search for opportunities, and make decisions that are in the best interest of the company.
6. Respect the confidentiality of non-public information acquired in the course of their activities and prevent the unauthorized disclosure of such information except when authorized or otherwise legally obligated to disclose. Confidential information acquired in the course of their work will not be used for personal advantage.
7. Promptly report known or suspected violations of this Code to the Chairman of the Audit Committee or to the General Counsel, who will promptly report the matter to the Audit Committee.
8. Demonstrate accountability for adhering to this Code by signing an Acknowledgement Form.

As with Ingedion's Code of Conduct, violations of this Code of Ethics will not be condoned, regardless of motive, and will be subject to appropriate disciplinary action, up to and including dismissal.
