Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

(d) On August 17, 2021, the Board of Directors (the “Board”) of Ingredion Incorporated (the “Company”) elected Catherine A. Suever a director of the Company, effective August 17, 2021.

The Board has determined that Ms. Suever qualifies as an independent director under the corporate responsibility standards of the New York Stock Exchange (“NYSE”).

Ms. Suever, age 62, served as Executive Vice President – Finance and Administration and Chief Financial Officer of Parker-Hannifin Corporation, a NYSE-listed global leader in motion and control technologies, from April 2017 until her retirement from this position in December 2020. Ms. Suever joined Parker-Hannifin in 1987 and held roles of increasing responsibility within the finance department in addition to serving as the Business Unit Manager for two business units during her time with the company. Ms. Suever began her career at PricewaterhouseCoopers, an independent registered public accounting firm, where she served in a variety of audit-related roles. Ms. Suever holds a Bachelor of Science degree in accounting, magna cum laude, from the University of Dayton.

Ms. Suever’s experience includes service as a Chief Financial Officer of a public, industrial manufacturing company, with extensive experience in finance and accounting, in addition to leading Parker-Hannifin’s IT, investor relations, business development, strategy, and ethics & integrity functions. She also completed and led financial and IT integration of three large transformative acquisitions and was a key leader with respect to the company’s consumer experience and employee engagement efforts.

Ms. Suever currently serves as a director and member of the audit committee of the board of directors of Hexcel Corporation, a NYSE-listed global leader in advanced composites technology that sells its products in commercial, military and recreational markets for use in commercial and military aircraft, space launch vehicles and satellites, wind turbine blades, sports equipment, and automotive products. In addition, she is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA). Ms. Suever recently served on the Board of Trustees for the National Multiple Sclerosis Society’s Ohio Chapter and was a member of the CFO Council of the Manufacturers Alliance for Productivity & Innovation (MAPI) and Financial Executives International (FEI).

Ms. Suever will receive initial and annual cash and stock compensation consistent with the compensation payable to all non-management directors, as described in the discussion under the heading Director Compensation on pages 20 through 21 of the Company’s definitive proxy statement filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on April 7, 2021. The Company will enter into a standard indemnification agreement with Ms. Suever.
