ARANCIA-CPC, S.A. DE C.V. AND SUBSIDIARY
CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
DECEMBER 31, 1997
(WITH THE INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT THEREON)

The Board of Directors and Stockholders
Corn Products International, Inc.:

We have audited the accompanying consolidated balance sheet of ARANCIA - CPC, S.A. de C.V. and subsidiary as of December 31, 1997, and the related consolidated statements of income, stockholders' equity and cash flows for the year then ended. These consolidated financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these consolidated financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of ARANCIA - CPC, S.A. de C.V. and subsidiary as of December 31, 1997, and the results of their operations, the changes in their stockholders' equity and their cash flows for the year then ended, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States of America.

ARANCIA-CPC, S.A. DE C.V. AND SUBSIDIARY

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

December 31, 1997

(Thousands of US dollars)

(1) Operations and summary of significant accounting policies:

The Company and subsidiary's main activity is the manufacturing and sale of starch, glucose and cornstarch. Some operations are carried out with affiliated companies.

The Consolidated Balance Sheet at September 30, 1998 and the Consolidated Statements of Income and Cash Flows for the nine months ended September 30, 1998 have not been audited, but have been prepared by management and reflect all adjustments (consisting solely of normal recurring items) which are, in the opinion of management, necessary to present a fair statement of results of operations for the nine month period ended September 30, 1998 and the financial position as of September 30, 1998 in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles as applied in the Company's audited combined financial statements for the year ended December 31, 1997.

Below is a description of the significant accounting policies and practices followed by the Company, which affect the main captions of the financial statements:

- a. Financial statement presentation - The accompanying financial statements have been translated from Mexican pesos to U.S. dollars using the reporting currency as the functional currency, therefore, the translation loss was booked in the statements of income.
- b. Translation method - The Company used the following exchange rates to translate into U.S. dollars the financial statements:

| | | |
|---|---|---------------------------------|
| Monetary assets, liabilities and tax loss | - | At the balance sheet date |
| Fixed assets and capital stock | - | At the historical date |
| Revenues, expenses, gain and losses | - | Weighted average for the period |
- c. Consolidated financial statements - The consolidated financial statements include the assets, liabilities and operating results of those subsidiaries where ARANCIA-CPC, S.A. de C.V. holds the majority of capital stock. All significant intercompany transactions have been eliminated in the consolidated financial statements.

The consolidated financial statements as of December 31, 1997 include financial statements of ARANCIA-CPC, S.A. de C.V. and Arrendadora Gefemesa, S.A. de C.V.
- d. Cash and cash equivalents - Cash equivalents consist of all investments purchased with an original maturity of three months or less, and which have virtually no risk of loss in value.
- e. Inventories - Inventories in the balance sheet are stated at the lower of cost or market. Corn is valued at average cost.

The Company's policy is to determine raw material costs by contracting raw material futures, securing purchases of raw materials in the United States of America according to its production needs in the short-term and minimizing market price fluctuation risks. Such raw materials have a hedge effect; thus, gains or losses derived from such contracts are included in the unit cost of raw materials.

ARANCIA-COC, S.A DE C.V. AND SUBSIDIARY

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

(Thousands of US dollars)

- f. Plants and properties - Plants and properties are stated at cost. Depreciation is generally computed on the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of depreciable assets at rates ranging from 25 years for buildings and 3 to 16 years for all other assets. Where permitted by law, accelerated depreciation methods are used for tax purposes. Long-lived assets are reviewed for impairment whenever the facts and circumstances indicate that the carrying amount may not be recoverable.
- g. Income taxes - Deferred income taxes reflect the differences between the assets and liabilities recognized for financial reporting purposes and amounts recognized for tax purposes. Deferred taxes are based on tax laws as currently enacted. The Company makes provisions for estimated income tax, less available tax credits and deductions.
- h. Seniority premiums and severance payments - Seniority premiums to which employees may be entitled upon retirement after fifteen years of service or more, pursuant to the Federal Labor Law, are recognized as cost of the years in which services are rendered, based on actuarial calculations. To this end, the companies have established an irrevocable trust. Contributions to the trust are charged to operations.
- Any other compensation to which employees may be entitled in case of separation, disability or death, are charged to operations of the years in which paid.
- i. Use of estimates - The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that effect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements, and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from these estimates.
- j. Risk and uncertainties - The Company operates in one business segment. The business is subject to varying degrees of risk and uncertainty. It insures its business and assets against insurable risks in a manner that it deems appropriate. The Company believes that the risk of loss from non-insurable events would not have a material adverse effect on the Company's operations as a whole.

(2) Foreign currency exposure:

At December 31, 1997, the companies have $13.5 million under exchange coverage. These hedge agreements provide that the financial institutions will be liable to pay (in domestic currency for each U.S. Dollar covered by the agreement), the difference between the official rate of exchange at the original and maturing dates.

The exchange rate of the Mexican Peso to the U.S. Dollar at December 31, 1997 was $8.06.

(3) Transactions with affiliated companies:

Transactions carried out during 1997 with affiliated companies were as follows:

| | |
|--------------------|----------|
| Sales | $ 8,377 |
| Income on services | 2,083 |
| Interest expense | 7,406 |
| Royalties Expense | 7,072 |
| Other expense | 786 |

(4) Inventories:

Inventories at December 31, 1997 are comprised of the following:

|----------------------------------|-----------|
| Finished goods | $ 11,028 |
| Raw materials | 9,958 |
| Material, packing and containers | 1,973 |
| Spare parts | 4,352 |

(5) Plants and Properties:

Plants and properties at December 31, 1997 are:

|--------------------------------------|------------|
| Land | $ 7,567 |
| Buildings and leasehold improvements | 49,748 |
| Machinery and equipment | 226,452 |

| Plants and properties, net | $ 268,783 |
| | ===== |

In 1997, the Company capitalized $891 in interest cost as a component of the cost of construction in progress.

(6) Financial Instruments

The carrying values of cash equivalents, accounts receivable, accounts payable and debt approximate fair values.

Raw material futures contracts:

At December 31, 1997, the Company had entered into raw material futures contracts for purchases aggregating $5,044. Contracts to buy raw materials after March 1998 amount to $3,934 and after July 1998 to $1,110. At December 31, 1997 there are unrealized losses of $2,314 and realized losses on 1998 futures contracts of $462.

(7) Notes payable and Long-term debt:

Long-term debt at December 31, 1997 is comprised of the following:

Payable in U.S. Dollars:

Commercial loans for imports, financing and mortgage loans bearing variable interest rates based on the LIBOR or Prime rate plus a differential, secured by property, plant and equipment and due in semi-yearly installments, and maturity through December, 2007.

$ 127,172

Commodity Credit Corporation (CCC) loans for specific business purposes current through January 2001 for the purchase of corn through the subscription of new documents and the preceding documents every six months, bearing at LIBOR rate plus the amount determinate by the parties at the time of disposing of funds and subject to a review of credit terms by the intermediary bank in August of each year and secured by inventories. Due to the nature of the agreement, it was considered that no current installments exist.

31,106

Commercial mortgage loans for the purchase of machinery and equipment with fixed interest rate, secured by industrial plant, payable semi-annually and maturity through the year 2006.

Maturity dates of long-term debt over the following five years are as follows:

| | |
|---------------------|------------|
| 2000 | $ 49,340 |
| 2001 | 47,380 |
| 2002 | 23,389 |
| 2003 | 19,151 |
| 2004 and thereafter | 70,039 |
| | ----- |
| | $ 209,299 |
| | ===== |

The Company has several notes payable to banks which are unsecured and with maturities of less than one year. The total of $35,381 incurs interest at 6.65% to 21.25% at December 31, 1997.

(8) Stockholders' equity:

The main characteristics of the accounts that comprise stockholders' equity are described below:

- a. At December 31, 1997 capital stock is represented by 1,000,000 common, registered shares with no par value, divided in two series: 510,000 Series "I" and 490,000 Series "II" shares.
- b. 5% of earnings for each period must be appropriated to create a legally required reserve until the reserve reaches one fifth of capital stock and is therefore not available for distribution to the shareholders.
- c. The updated amount on the tax basis of contributions made by shareholders and retained earnings on which income tax has already been paid, as applicable, may be refunded or distributed tax free. Other refunds and distributions in excess of such amounts, according to the procedure set forth in the Law, are subject to a dividend tax at a 34% rate, therefore, stockholders may only dispose of 66% of such amounts.

(9) Income tax (IT), tax on assets (TA), employees' statutory profit sharing (ESPS) and unamortized tax losses:

The companies file individual IT and TA returns; therefore, the combined statement of earnings includes a summary of the IT and TA expense.

Promociones Industriales Aralia, S.A. de C.V., as holding and ARANCIA-CPC, S.A. de C.V. and its Subsidiary as subsidiaries obtained authorization from the Ministry of Finance and Public Credit to consolidate for tax purposes.

Pursuant to the current tax provisions, corporations must pay the greater of IT and TA. Both taxes recognize the effects of inflation although differently than accounting principles generally accepted in Mexico.

ARANCIA-CPC, S.A DE C.V. AND SUBSIDIARY

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

(Thousands of US dollars)

ESPS is practically computed on the same bases as IT but without recognizing the effects of inflation.

ESPS costs are reflected as compensation costs in the consolidated statements of income.

TA payable in excess of IT for the period may be recovered in the succeeding ten periods, updated by inflation, provided IT exceeded TA in any of those periods. At December 31, 1997 of ARANCIA-CPC, S.A. de C.V. there is recoverable TA in the future as follows:

| Originated In | Amount | | Expire in |
|------------------|-----------------|----------------------------------|--------------|
| | Original | Restated at December 31, 1997 | |
| 1994 | $ 502 ===== | 579 === | 2004 |

Through a Presidential Decree to promote investments published on November 1, 1995, up to 100% of some investments in fixed assets made in 1996 by taxpayers that had been operating prior to November 1, 1995 may be immediately deducted for tax purposes.

Company investments in 1996 that are subject to immediate deduction gave rise to a loss for income tax purposes of $99,832.

On the other hand, through a mechanism provided by the application rules of said Decree, the aforesaid immediate deduction results in the reduction of the TA liability of 1997 and, if such tax exceeds tax due, the updated difference may be used to reduce estimated tax payments for the current and five succeeding years.

As a result of the aforesaid deduction, 1997 TA of $4,368, was eliminated leaving $29,064 to be applied to the succeeding four years.

Pursuant to the current IT Law, it is possible that a tax loss, updated by inflation, be carried forward to the taxable income of the ten succeeding periods. Tax losses have no effect on ESPS. Of the tax losses sustained in previous periods $33,932 was applied to 1997 taxable income, giving rise to a tax benefit of $11,537. Therefore, the remaining benefit will be recognized as a reduction in current tax expense in the year in which TA is recovered.

At December 31 1997, unamortized tax losses of Arancia-CPC, S.A. de C.V. and Arrendadora Gefemesa, S.A. de C.V. and the years in which their right to use them expires are as follows:

| Originated in | Amount | | Expire in |
|------------------|---------------------|----------------------------------|--------------|

The Company has not recorded a valuation allowance as management believes it is more likely than not that all tax assets will be utilized. The statutory tax rate for Mexico is 34%. The effective tax benefit in 1997 was 31%.

(10) Contingent liabilities:

In 1998, the Company developed a plan to deal with the Year 2000 problem and began converting its computer systems to be Year 2000 compliant. The plan provides for the conversion efforts to be completed by the end of 1999. The Year 2000 problem is the result of computer programs being written using two digits rather than four to define the applicable year. The total cost of the project is estimated to be $4 million and is being funded through operating cash flows.

(11) Subsequent events:

- a) On January 20, 1998 the commercial mortgage loan for $63 million was prepaid, leading to a prepayment refund of $500.
- b) On January 1, 1999 the income tax rate was increased from 34% to 35%. Additionally, certain distributions to stockholders will be subject to a 5% withholding tax.

The following unaudited pro forma consolidated condensed balance sheet as of September 30, 1998 gives effect to the acquisition of 100% of Arancia - CPC, S.A. de C.V. ("Arancia") by Corn Products International, Inc. "the "Company") as of September 30, 1998 as if the acquisition had occurred September 30, 1998. The following unaudited pro forma consolidated condensed statements of income for the year ended December 31, 1997 and the nine months ended September 30, 1998 are presented as if 100% of the acquisition of Arancia had occurred, and the operations of the Company and Arancia had been consolidated, as of January 1, 1997. The future installment payments of $73 million, for the remaining 20.9% of Arancia and the minimum contingent payments of $9 million are reflected as minority interest. Interest on the installment payments of $73 million is recorded as minority income and accrues at the same rate of interest as the Company's short term U.S. credit facility. The unaudited pro forma consolidated condensed financial statements are presented for comparative purposes only and do not purport to be indicative of the combined financial position or results of operations which would have been realized had the acquisition of Arancia been consummated as of the date or during the periods for which unaudited pro forma financial statements are presented or for any future period or date. The unaudited pro forma financial information should be read in conjunction with the Company's previously filed year end and interim financial statements and the audited financial statement and notes thereto for Arancia that appear elsewhere in this Form 8-K amendment.
